HOME FURNISHINGS AT THE MACY STORE

Selected as typical of Macy quality and Macy values and gathered into one announcement for today—the day when husband and wife can most conveniently visit the Macy Store.

> Solid Mahogany Tea Wagons, Trays and Tables At prices averaging 1-4 to 1-3 lower than elsewhere.

This Mahogany Tea Wagen is designed on rather severe and dignified straight lines, and is fitted with wooden wheels it is silent and easy on the floor-covering. The glass tray top is not only cleanly, but sets off the dishes placed upon it. The deep bottom shelf is large enough to accommodate plates. cleanly, but sets off the dishes placed upon it. The deep bottom shelf is large enough to accommodate plates, etc., for 25 or more guests. Macy's price is $18.74.

A Mahogany Muffin Stand as pictured above has three equally grad-mahogany. The proplet Table here shown is solid mahogany, and has a dropleaf at each side, making it very convenient for those who are limited in room space. When closed it measures 22x8 inches, and when open 22x28. At one end is a handy drawer. Macy's price is $13.49.

uated shelves, ranging from 10 to 12 inches in diameter. The graceful lines and the ball top give distinction to a most useful piece.

Macy's price is $7.74

This Mahogany Sewing Table illustrated above stands 29 inches high, and the top is 27x141/2 inches. The turned legs and dull finish give it a subdued richness, while the deep compartment at either end, and the three drawers with cut glass knobs, give ample room for both work and needles and cottons, etc.

Macy's price is $17.49.

"Straus" Cut Glass Electrolier

This is merely an example of the many special values to be found in the Macy Cut Glass depart-

"Straus" Cut Glass is made in our own glasscutting shops. It is very brilliant and deeply cut. and therefore is not to be compared with the dull lustreless kinds sold elsewhere.

The Electrolier, priced at $5.89 (regularly at Macy's $8.89, and not to be duplicated elsewhere for less than $10.00 to $12.00), is deeply cut in a rich conventional design. The shape is the deep dome style, and the base is so cut as to show to advantage by reflected light. This lamp is complete, with six feet of cord, socket and 16-candle-power bulb.

Housefurnishings at the Macy Store At "Lowest-in-the-City" prices

In the basement of the Macy Store is perhaps the most comprehensive showing in New York of Housefurnishings.

We stick to our 55-year-old policy of selling only "firsts"—absolutely perfect goods where health is concerned. We could realize a greater profit by handling "seconds" or inferior housefurnishings as other stores do, but such grades are unsafe and injurious to health, and therefore do not find a place in Macy's stock. So vast is the variety that only one or two examples are possible here.

As instances, we mention silver-plated Casseroles at $3.24 (regularly $3.96) of oval shape in 3-pint capacity on sale in our Silverware department on the Main Floor. Imported brown-white Cooking Ware, from Germany, ranges from 23c for a Ramekin to $1.49 for a large oval Casserole.
